COMES NOW, Jeffrey DeNunzio, the appointed Custodian of AMBIENT WATER CORPORATION, who hereby submits this Quarterly Report as requested by this Court through its Order dated December 23, 2020.

1. Jeffrey was previously appointed by this Court as Custodian of AMBIENT WATER CORPORATION on December 16, 2020, pursuant to NRS §78.347.

2. On or about October 30, 2020, Petitioner brought this action as a shareholder of the Corporation seeking appointment of Jeffrey DeNunzio as Custodian of the Corporation because, among other things, the Corporation had allowed its charter with the State of Nevada to lapse by failing to file the required annual reports and to pay the required annual fees.

3. The last known officers and directors reflected in the records of the Nevada Secretary of State ("NVSOS") did not object to Plaintiff's Petition, nor did any of the last known shareholders.

1 4. Following the entry of the Order appointing Jeffrey DeNunzio as Custodian on December 23, 2020,
2 the Custodian filed a Certificate of Reinstatement and Certificate of Amendment to Articles of
3 Incorporation with NVSOS in excess of the 10 days requirement pursuant to NRS 78.347 (4) because 4 NVSOS was owed $22,685 and the Company had to borrow money from Petitioner to pay NVSOS.
5 Custodian paid NVSOS in full and reinstated the Company on January 21, 2021 and filed the Amendment
6 on January 22, 2021.

7 Custodian has located the last known transfer agent for the Company known as Securities Transfer Corp.
8 who agreed to terminate the Company's transfer agent and registrar agreement in exchange for $4,922.50
9 that was owed by the Company to transfer agent. Custodian had to borrow money from Petitioner to pay
10 transfer agent. Olde Monmouth Stock Transfer Co., Inc. was appointed as the new transfer agent because 11 they have lower corporate action and maintenance fees. The Company plans to hold an annual or 12 special meeting of shareholders in the coming weeks. To date, Custodian has not heard from the previous 13 management of the Company.

14 DATED this 29th day of January, 2020
